

defense The Arsenal defense typically consists of a back four of a left back, center back, right back, and center back. In front of the back four, two midfielders are usually deployed, one defensive midfielder and one attacking midfielder. Arsenal also uses a high press, meaning all players will press the ball from midfield.