

happy with Jon Flanagan Yes, Liverpool are happy with the progress of Jon Flanagan. The versatile full-back has been impressive for the Reds this season, making five appearances and keeping two Premier League clean sheets. Flanagan has been a model of consistency since being handed his chance by manager Jürgen Klopp and he is now first-choice left-back, taking over from Alberto Moreno. The club are said to be delighted with Flanagan's level of performance and he is expected to continue developing into a top quality full-back for Liverpool.
