

retain control on the path to Anfield Liverpool retain control over the path to Anfield in a number of ways. Firstly, they take a number of safety and security measures such as hiring stewards and police officers to ensure that the route to the stadium is secure and that any potential risks are avoided. Liverpool also ensure that the local area is well-maintained to ensure a safe and enjoyable journey for all supporters. On match day, Liverpool encourage fans to use public transport and have applied for road closures to ensure safe travel for everyone. Additionally, the club promote a Respect campaign, which allows them to enforce a strict no-tolerance policy for any inappropriate behaviour. Finally, the club also keep the path to Anfield as enjoyable as possible and work in tandem with the local council to ensure the area is kept clean and tidy at all times.
