

UBC (University of British Columbia) is a public research university in Vancouver, Canada. It is the oldest university in the province and one of the most highly-ranked in Canada and internationally. Founded in 1908, UBC is home to over 66,000 students and over 21,000 faculty and staff. The university offers over 300 undergraduate programs and 200 graduate programs. UBC is widely known for its research as it is a member of the U15 group of research-intensive universities in Canada.